SHAW AIR FORCE BASE

Restoration Advisory Board

Community Member Application

What is a Restoration Advisory Board (RAB)?

A RAB is a forum to discuss and exchange information about Shaw AFB's environmental restoration program, identify issues of concern, and establish a direct line of communication between the Air Force, the community, and regulators.

Shaw AFB RAB consists of representatives from:

- Sumter County Council
- City of Sumter Council
- Local Community residents
- Shaw Air Force Base
- South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control (SCDHEC)

Purpose of the Restoration Advisory Board

- Bring the community's interests and concerns to the attention of the Air Force.
- Work with the Air Force to ensure investigations and cleanup plans to meet the needs of the communities involved.
- Review and provide feedback on important investigations, reports and cleanup actions.
- Assist the Air Force by taking accurate information back to the communities.
- Help the local community to understand the cleanup process and encourage them to participate.
- Protect the health and environment against risks by ensuring appropriate measures are implemented.

RAB Community Member Role and Responsibilities

- Attend all meetings.
- Volunteers are highly encouraged to participate on the RAB for a minimum of one year.
- Provides input on environmental restoration issues in an open, honest and constructive manner to the decision makers.
- Represents and communicates community concerns to the Shaw AFB RAB.
- Act as a channel for the exchange of information between the community, Shaw AFB and SCDHEC regarding Shaw AFB's environmental restoration program.
- Review, evaluate and comment on documents and other materials related to restoration program, where applicable.
- Serves on the RAB without compensation.
